

Report on the 22nd meeting of the SAC

The 22nd meeting of the SAC was held on October 18 in Bern. During the meeting, the SAC agreed to launch a website featuring the new SAC logo, as well as information on SAC composition, tasks, and meetings, and where requests can be submitted. The SAC also agreed to publish a brief report on the EUCAST website on National Antimicrobial Susceptibility Testing Committees (NACs, <https://www.eucast.org/nac>). Various issues were discussed, but no recommendations were released. The next meeting is scheduled for March 2025.
